

Please preserve regulation of broadband services to ensure that all ISPs continue to have broadband access at reasonable rates. In my experience, small ISPs provide the best service, but they need protection from large phone companies that have effectively monopolized broadband services in some areas.